

BUSINESS INTERNSHIP (BI)

Course Descriptions

BI 500 Business Internship 1 to 3 Credit Hours

The internship provides experience for students in a professional business environment. Participating employers hire students within parameters set by the College of Business and its internship program. Students are required to submit a report and evaluation documents at the end of each work assignment and participate in an assessment session with the internship staff. (A maximum of 3 credit hours of internship course work may be applied toward MBA, MSA, MSIS, or MSF graduation requirements upon approval from the Program Advisor.)
