

ADMISSIONS COMMITTEES

Admissions Review

The Admissions Review Committees meets regularly to review borderline admission cases and other unique admission circumstances.

The Conduct Review Committee reviews applicants with academic or criminal conduct history to determine if additional items are needed for a conduct decision and determine if the student is eligible to be reviewed for academic admission review.