Bachelor's degree was earned at UM-Dearborn

If you earned your degree at UM-Dearborn, submit an undergraduate application. You will not need to request a UM-Dearborn transcript (or transcripts from schools attended prior to your initial degree at UM-Dearborn); we will access your UM-Dearborn academic record. You must choose a major at time of admission and it must be different than your previous major at UM-Dearborn.

- If UM-Dearborn was your last educational experience, your final cumulative GPA will be used to determine admissibility. Transfer GPA requirements apply.
- If you attended any college/university after graduating from UM-Dearborn, a transcript from that institution is required and may be used to determine admissibility.

First Bachelor's degree is from a different regionally accredited institution:

- Applicants must:
 - complete at the residency requirement of least 30 credits at UM-Dearborn.
 - be in a different degree program than your first one.
 - declare a major at the time of admission.
 - meet with an advisor to plan your path through orientation/academic advising.
- If you attended UM-Dearborn (without receiving a degree), your prior academic coursework will be taken into consideration for your admission
